WOMAN IN RED WILL PROBABLY BE DEPORTED

Put John Dillinger On Spot Night He Was Killed

Chicago, Sept. 30.—(P)—Federal authorities declared tonight they would continue to seek deportation of the Dillinger slaying "woman in red" despite Melvin H. Purvis' affirmation of her services in unobscuring the late public enemy No. 1.

Shortly after the former chief of the federal agents here had issued a statement that as "part of her reward" he believed Mrs. Anna Sage should be allowed to remain in the United States, federal District Attorney Michael Igoe said:

"I have not fully read Mr. Purvis' statement but we are going ahead with our effort to see that Anna Sage is deported."

He could not comment further on Purvis' confirmation of the woman's claim.

In a typewritten statement which the former "G" man handed out in the press room of the Federal Court building after he had conferred with the district attorney, Purvis said the woman, publicized as the wearer of a red dress the night John Dillinger walked out of a neighborhood movie theatre to his doom, had "furnished the information which led to Dillinger's capture and I for one am not ungrateful."

"I sincerely believe that some steps should be taken to prevent her deportation," his statement added.

"She desired to remain in the United States and as part of her reward, I believe she should be allowed to do so."

Mrs. Sage, fighting an immigration bureau's order for her return to Rumania, as an undersized alien, asserted she alone led Dillinger into the federal trap the night of July 22, 1934. She claimed Purvis guaranteed her she would not be sent out of the country in return for the Dillinger information. Her story won her a federal court habeas corpus hearing and temporary stay from deportation until Oct. 2.

Regarding his bargain with the "woman in red," Purvis said:

"I informed Mrs. Sage that I would guarantee that she would receive a substantial monetary reward she admitted receiving $5,000. x x x I informed her that I would bring to the attention of the appropriate officials in Washington her actions in aiding the government and that I would recommend that some steps be taken to prevent her deportation if possible. I have done that."

"In summing up this matter," he continued, "I believe it sufficient to say that Mrs. Sage has performed an invaluable service, a service ranking among the highest of those needed by our country at that time."

In Indianapolis today, Mrs. Sage filed application with Gov. Paul McNutt for a pardon for her conviction for operating a disorderly house in Gary, Ind., presumably to clear her record in her fight against deportation.

Miami, Fla., Sept. 30.—(P)—Transfer of passengers from the reef locked liner Rotterdam off the coast of Jamaica was completed as a tropical hurricane, moving in the Atlantic tonight brought fear to Bermuda.

The S. S. Ariguan, which put out from Kingston, Jamaica early in the day, was the rescue ship. The Rotterdam carried about 450 passengers and a crew of 526.

Captain J. Van Duken, veteran master of the Rotterdam, messaged to the New York office.

"Everybody is happy. The passengers are taking it more or less as an experience."

The Rotterdam's passengers were due at the Jacksonville tonight.

The Jacksonville weather bureau late today said the hurricane probably would pass a "short distance" to the northwest of Bermuda, as it still appeared moving northeastward.

Reports from Hamilton, Bermuda, where the weekly ship, said residents feared the storm might strike there early tonight.

Tiny Bimini, Coral Island 45 miles east of Miami, which prohibition era run-runners used as a base in supplying their clients in the United States, lay devastated but there was no loss of life.

The Rotterdam reported this morning it was wrecked on a reef in the Caribbean 60 miles southeast of Kingston.

The Ariguan earlier reported by wireless to the Associated Press that the Rotterdam was pounding slightly on the reef and her hold was leaking.

There was no fear for the safety of the passengers.

The storm's destruction began in Jamaica Friday night when the tail end of the hurricane lashed the island killed two and caused heavy damage to banana and other crops.

It passed on to Cuba where it cut a swath 150 miles wide through three provinces. Deaths there were reported at 30 with hundreds homeless and heavy property loss.

For 17 hours it menaced the east coast of Florida. Late Saturday the storm veered slightly to the east, leaving the Florida coast with only a blow.

Since that time it moved across Bimini, sent high winds to the islands in the Bahamas group and rushed meaningly toward Bermuda.

The liner Rotterdam was en route back to New York after a cruise to the Virgin Islands and to La Guayra in Venezuela. The ship left New York on September 21.

Morant Cay, where the ship is held by the rocks, is south of the treacherous windward passage between Cuba and Haiti.

INVESTIGATE BLAST WHICH KILLED EIGHT

Owner Of Store Being Held By Chicago Police

Chicago, Sept. 30.—(P)—Police and fire authorities tonight pressed their investigation into a tenement explosion and fire as the deaths of a father and his daughter in creased the toll from the mysterious blast to 10.

The latest to die from burns received when flames swept the three-story brick structure on the West Side were Frank Cappola, 45, and his daughter, Philomena, 8.

Their deaths brought to six those dead in the Cappola family, four other children having died last night. The mother, Theresa, and 3-year old Frank were expected to recover.

Police Captain John Stege announced tonight the arrest of a man whom he described as a "friend of Frank Vitale," the grocer in whose store on the first floor of the buildings the explosion apparently occurred.

Completion of testimony was set for October 16 at the request of police Captain John Norton after one suspect, Frank Vitale, grocer, was held for questioning.

Vitale drove up to the West Side tenement building in a taxicab with two of his children after the explosion wrecked the structure early today.

Police said he was unable to explain why he had closed his store—on the first floor of the building—yesterday for the first time in 15 years.

The grocer insisted he knew nothing of the origin of the midnight blaze, which brought injuries to a dozen persons. The death toll was the highest in the Cappola family. Philip, 4; Ralph, 13; Pasquella, 12; and Daniel, 10, succumbing to burns and shock. Other dead: Virginia Grasso, 16; Joseph Grasso, 45; Mrs. Rose Angelasano, 45; Miss Rachel Angelasano, 24.

Belief that the fire had been deliberately set by a bomb or gasoline was expressed by Chief Fire Marshall Michael Corrigan. The explosion rocked the block, and the flames swept through the building before the victims could escape.

VANSWERINGENS SEIZE CONTROL OF RAILROADS

Are High Bidders On Key Securities At Auction

By Claude A. Jagger

Associated Press Financial Editor

New York, Sept. 30.—(P)—The Van Swearingen brothers of Cleveland reached out with the long arm of mid-western dollars today to seize control of their $3,000,000 railroad empire as it was dangled over a public auction block in Manhattan.

The two former real estate salesmen, aided by a Great Lakes steamship operator and an Indiana preserving jar manufacturer, were high bidders for the key securities carrying control of the greatest railway mileage ever assembled in private hands.

Their bids, aggregating $3,121,000, together with $1,582,000 offered by a New York investment house, took all of the collateral offered at auction by a banking group headed by J. P. Morgan & Co., on default of loans to the Van Swearingens, aggregating with bank interest some $50,000,000.

The Van Swearingen purchase took all of the approximately 51 per cent interest in Alleghany Corp., their key railroad holding company, together with securities of the new Van Swearingen Corp., the Van Swearingen Co., the Cleveland Terminals, and other strictly Van Swearingen enterprises.

The purchase by the investment house—Hallgarten & Co.—was of certain moderate sized blocks of listed securities of some of the Van Swearingen railways and a few industrial corporations, not essential to control of the far-flung empire.

The banking group, receiving in the aggregate only $4,703,000, suffered a loss of $45,297,000. The largest part of this loss, it is understood, was taken by J. P. Morgan & Co., and smaller parts by associated banks.

Cot. Leonard W. Ayres of Cleveland, well-known banker and business analyst, bid in the securities sought by the Cleveland brothers as the representative of MidAmerica Corp.

Germany Is Faced With Scarcity Of Fats, Meat, Fruit

Police Patrol Meat And Dairy Stores To Enforce Strict Rationing

By A. D. Stefferud

Associated Press Foreign Staff

Berlin, Sept. 30.—(P)—Scarcity of fats, meat and fruit threatened tonight to joggle Germany's economic apparatus.

Household providers scurried from one butter store to another trying in vain to buy quarter pounds of any kind of fat, and officials were just as busy trying to allay fears, to insure future supplies and to protect their carefully built up self-sufficiency system by buying only the absolute minimum from abroad.

Police patrolled meat and dairy stores to prevent the "smuggling" of foodstuffs and to enforce strict rationing of increasingly scarce supplies. Deliveries were watched carefully lest stores attempt to send butter and lard to their customers after the regular trading hours.

Housewives bought all the lard, fruit, meat and so forth they could, obviously fearing that shortage in those lines indicated a scarceness of other foods.

Some observers considered it likely the bars to imports will be let down for that country which will sell on credit or reorganize Germany's shortage of foreign exchange.

In qualified circles, however, the belief was expressed the shortage may be only temporary.

Vigorous efforts are being made to increase the production of hogs, which number about 25,000,000 as compared with 25,000,000 last September.

Relief Client To Receive $10,000

Litchfield, Ill., Sept. 30.—(P)—John M. McBride, 72-year-old relief client, tomorrow will leave his church basement home and go to Springfield, Ill., where a fortune of $10,000 awaits him.

McBride, estranged 17 years from his sister, Lizzie Sanders of Pawnee, learned today he will bequeath him her entire estate, consisting of real estate at Springfield, Pana and Pawnee and government bonds. She was buried last Sunday.

McBride has been living in the basement of the Universalist church here.

Scott was arraigned soon after the grand jury reported. He was charged with forcing a Peoria couple to give him money and their car. Two days after the robbery he was arrested in Michigan.

Emperor Haile Selassie is Awaiting Signal to Summon His Eager Warriors to Arms

Philanthropist to Build Gravel Road to Pike Cemetery

Mt. Sterling, Ill., Sept. 30.—(P)—A month ago Frank Orr gave $40,000 to relatives on his eighty-third birthday so that they might use some of his wealth before old age overtook them.

Now the aged former Brown County clerk is continuing his philanthropy. He is paying for and supervising construction of a gravel road to the Hinman Chapel Cemetery near-by in Pike County, where many of his family and friends lie buried.

The road has been graded and is ready for graveling, and one bridge is under construction, all at Orr's expense.

Recently when a member of his family died the road was so bad that a horse drawn hearse was required to take the body to the cemetery. The aged Orr has determined this shall not occur again.

ITALIANS CLAIM HAILE SELASSIE IS 'AGGRESSOR'

Declare Ethiopia Can Put Million Men In Field

By John Evans

Associated Press Foreign Staff

Rome, Sept. 30.—(P)—Italians seized tonight upon Ethiopia's forthcoming call to arms as proof Emperor Haile Selassie, not Il Duce, is the "aggressor."

Selassie's warning to the League of Nations that he may soon be forced to order general mobilization overshadowed mingled joy and anger at news of the British note to France, placing Britain behind "steady and collective resistance to all acts of unprovoked aggression."

Italy believed the call to arms would put at least a million armed Ethiopians on the march, or four times as many men as there are Italian soldiers in East Africa.

On the other hand, it was reasoned that the note of Sir Samuel Hoare, the British Foreign Secretary, supports several Italian arguments. However, some anger was expressed because "London's reply (to France) contradicts British League policy."

Selassie's phrase concerning "the Italian menace" was answered today by Virginia Gayda in an editorial in the Giornale D'Italia. He called the threatened mobilization "The Ethiopian Menace," saying it threatened Italy.

The Giornale charged the races of Ethiopia are "raring to go," and listed nine alleged Ethiopian aggressions against the controverted clash at Walwal.

"Everything proves Ethiopia is the aggressor," said Gayda. "She is a continuing aggressor."

"She will continue to be one until sterilized."

Addis Ababa—Emperor awaited signal from Geneva delegation to order general mobilization.

Rome—Italians claimed imminent Ethiopian mobilization meant that nation was "aggressor."

MAY CHANGE RULES

Chicago, Sept. 30.—(P)—Several proposed new rules to govern transactions on the Chicago board of trade will be submitted to a vote of the membership on October 14, it was announced tonight after a meeting of the exchange's directors.

If the proposed rules were adopted they would change the basis of margin requirements, require one day's notice before delivery, and would prohibit trading in grain futures deliverable in the current month during the last three business days of the month.

Says Industry Must Keep Employment Moving Forward

Boulder Dam, Nev., Sept. 30.—(P)—President Roosevelt dedicated Boulder Canyon Dam today, called the giant structure a symbol of useful government work and declared private industry "must bear the principal responsibility of keeping the processes of greater employment moving forward with accelerated speed."

The president's address at the 726-foot high structure followed the theme of the government undertaking to "throw the clutch to start the wheels of what we call private industry."

"Labor makes wealth," Mr. Roosevelt said, "the use of materials makes wealth. To employ workers and materials when private employment has failed is to translate into great national possessions the energy that otherwise would be wasted."

"Boulder Dam is a splendid symbol. The mighty waters of the Colorado foot high structure followed the theme of the government undertaking to 'throw the clutch to start the wheels of what we call private industry.'"

"I might go further and suggest to you that use begets use. Such works as this serve as a means of making useful other national possessions. x x x"

"It is a simple fact that government spending is already beginning to show definite signs of its effect on consumer spending; that the putting of people to work by the government has put other people to work through private employment, and that in two years and a half we have come to the point where private industry must bear the principal responsibility of keeping the processes of greater employment moving forward with accelerated speed."

Harold Ickes, secretary of the interior who presided at the ceremonies, gave major credit for the structure to United States Senator Hiram Johnson of California. He sponsored the project in Congress.

"It has been well said that if this dam should bear the name of any living person, then it should be christened Johnson Dam," Ickes said.

The name was changed to Boulder Dam after having previously been named for former President Hoover.

President Roosevelt, as he gazed over the stone parapet on top of the highest dam ever constructed, declared "I'm speechless."

GOVERNMENT IS FACED WITH BIG FINANCING JOB

Must Raise 5 Billion Dollars In Next Nine Months

By Richard L. Turner

Washington, Sept. 30.—(P)—The job of borrowing $5,000,000,000 in the next nine months was handed the treasury today by President Roosevelt's new spending and tax collection schedules.

Asserting they expected no difficulty in finding lenders, officials were gratified nevertheless that increasing revenues and decreasing expenditures, outlined in the revised budget, made the total to be raised some $665,000,000 less than had been estimated in the original budget of last January.

Studying the new estimates presented by the chief executive, fiscal observers noted that while the January budget called for total borrowings of $3,788,623,782 in new money to meet running expenses, the new summary set the figure at $3,123,736,722.

Since the fiscal year began on July 1, the treasury already has borrowed $1,726,000,000, leaving a remainder of $1,397,000,000 still to be raised. But in addition $3,786,000,000 must be borrowed to retire government securities which mature before the end of the fiscal year.

It was noted, too, that while in January, the president proposed that $739,000,000 of the treasury's cash on hand be used to pay this year's expenses in addition to the sum then proposed to be borrowed, the new estimates cut the depletion of the cash balance to $158,000,000.

The revised figures, published today, estimated the year's deficit at $2,821,000,000 or some $1,237,000,000 less than the January estimates. Revenues were computed at $479,000,000 greater and expenditures at $768,000,000 less.

President Roosevelt hailed a rising business curve as forecasting a still decreasing deficit in the fiscal year 1937, declared the nation's tax structure "stronger than ever before in our history," and said no new taxes would be needed, unless the courts invalidate AAA's processing taxes.

BOULDER DAM IS DEDICATED BY ROOSEVELT

France Will Aid Britain If Italy Attacks Fleet

French Naval Forces In Mediterranean Being Strengthened

By Richard Massock

Associated Press Foreign Staff

Paris, Sept. 30.—(P)—An official spokesman said tonight "France would be forced to aid Great Britain if Italy attacked her fleet while it was enforcing League of Nations sanctions."

There was no definite confirmation of the report Great Britain has asked for an expression of France's attitude in the event Italy should, without provocation, attack the British fleet in the Mediterranean.

But one authority stated "specific questions have been asked by Great Britain regarding France's action 'in specific cases that might arise' in connection with application of League of Nations sanctions."

Some informed observers saw indications that the part of a mutual assistance agreement reported under discussion by France and Great Britain.

In any event, officials said, France would automatically be obliged, under the league covenant, to take sanctions against Italy if Italy made an "unprovoked attack" on Great Britain while the latter was carrying out league orders.

French unwillingness to make definite promises to Great Britain unless that nation reciprocates was reflected in authoritative quarters and in the press.

Strengthening of French naval forces in the Mediterranean was revealed tonight, and military observers said garrisons on the Italian border had been brought to full strength and reinforced with four new Alpine regiments.

Loafer's Estate Valued At $4029

Chicago, Sept. 30.—(P)—From his brother, John, who, he said, "never was known to do a day's work," Charles Sweeney inherited $4,029.12 today.

Charles Sweeney, a retired policeman, proved his claim in probate court and expressed amazement that his brother had so much money. "I haven't seen John in five years," he said. "He was a loafer."

John Sweeney died of pneumonia in the county hospital last Saturday. His little fortune was found wrapped in a newspaper.

"Midget" Fernekes Sought as Leader of Gang That Wounded Five in Chicago Bank Holdup

LEAGUE FEARS WAR WILL COME AT EARLY DATE

Chicago, Sept. 30.—(P)—Police tonight sought Henry J. "Midget" Fernekes, desperado who recently escaped from the Joliet penitentiary, as the leader of seven gunmen who left five persons wounded in their flight from an unsuccessful robbery attempt at the University State Bank on the south side.

The possibility that Alvin Karpis, public enemy No. 1, might have been a member of the gang was discussed by Police but D. M. Ladd, Chicago chief of the bureau of investigation, department of justice, said a description furnished him was not that of Karpis.

William Fleming, 58, retired policeman, a guard at the bank, was shot twice through the chest and critically wounded when he drew his pistol to fight it out with the gunmen as they invaded the bank, shouting "It's a stickup."

At the same time Miss Astrid Olson, a teller, and other employees stepped on tear gas releases, filling the bank with blinding fumes.

In the fusillade between Fleming and the gunmen three customers fell. Mrs. Dorothy Gregory, 29, was shot in the hip and the bullet lodged in her spine. Dr. Thorne Duell, 45, a research associate in anthropology at the University of Chicago, was shot in the left ankle, and Carl Ruether, 40, a salesman, suffered a flesh wound in the right side.

A few minutes later, six miles northwest of the robbery scene, the gunman, accompanied by a woman and either a boy or a small man riding in a second car, Maurice to curb the auto of Sgt. Maurice Flynn of the South Parks police.

In the exchange of shots which followed Chester White, 23, a negro bystander, was shot in the leg. The gunman escaped. Flynn's car was found to have 20 bullet holes in it.

M. C. Wood, owner of a store a few doors from the bank, identified a picture of Fernekes as one of the gunmen. Fernekes escaped from the penitentiary at Joliet last August disguised as a visitor.

Fleming said there were seven men in the robbery car, three having entered the bank while four waited outside.

Police believed the gang split forces and used two cars after leaving the bank.

Adena M. Rich Takes Up Mantle Of Jane Addams

Will Take Over Duties As Resident Head Of Famous Hull House

Chicago, Sept. 30.—(P)—The life work of the late Jane Addams goes tomorrow under the guardianship of her onetime secretary, Mrs. Adena Miller Rich.

A student since her college days at Oberlin of America's foreign born, Mrs. Rich, director of the Immigrants' Protective League, becomes head resident of Hull House, internationally famous social settlement on Chicago's teeming west side.

There she will carry on the tradition and services of Hull House's world famous leader, who died last spring.

The halsted street institution prepared a quiet but sincere welcome for her—known to its clientele as a friend for 20 years.

Hull House is home to Mrs. Rich who was born in 1889 in Erie, Pa. With her husband, Kenneth F. Rich, a LaSalle street broker, she has lived there in an apartment for several years that she might devote all her free time to social welfare causes. She is regarded as an authority on citizenship, naturalization and immigration problems.

After her graduation from Oberlin, where she was an honor student, in 1911 she came to Chicago and soon became deeply interested in Miss Addams' work.

Ten years ago she volunteered to act as secretary to the famous social worker and devoted a year to the job. Then she became director of the Immigrants' Protective League.

Ernest C. Straub Wants Insurance

Chicago, Sept. 30.—(P)—Ernest C. Straub, brother of Louis K. Straub, the victim of the mysterious Saddle and Cycle club murder of last February 3, today filed an answer in federal court contesting the right of Louis Straub's widow to collect on his insurance policy.

The answer followed cross suits filed by Lillian Melba Straub, widow of the slain man, and the New York Life Insurance company, to determine to whom the $30,462 insurance payment should go.

Straub asserted in his answer that the widow was disqualified in her claim for the insurance because of her alleged position in the slaying mystery, and asked that the money be paid to him and to Ernest and Wallace Shropshire, minor cousins.

Mrs. Straub and several of her friends were questioned and later released by the state's attorney's office after her husband's death.

LEAGUE FEARS WAR WILL COME AT EARLY DATE

Peacemakers Working On New Series Of Recommendations

By Joseph E. Sharkey

Associated Press Foreign Staff

Geneva, Sept. 30.—(P)—League of Nations peacemakers went to work today on a new series of recommendations for settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian conflict, realizing all the while their plan may be knocked in the head by the first shell in East Africa.

League experts, aside from drafting a history of the dispute, jotted down the headlines of a peace plan which, after unanimous adoption by the council, would be submitted to Italy and Ethiopia.

Today's information indicated the new plan will be even less favorable to Italy than the project of the "Big Five" committee which Premier Mussolini turned down, at least it will be less specific and less calculated to weaken the sovereignty of Ethiopia.

Something may be inserted, it also was hinted, to recommend the two nations cease their concentration of military forces.

The plan may also embody the suggestion of Sir Samuel Hoare, the British Foreign Secretary, for a world conference aimed at securing a more equitable distribution of the world's raw materials.

Should such a conference materialize, it was indicated, the United States would be invited.

League officials pointed out the project—requested by Emperor Haile Selassie—for the sending of a squadron of aerial observers to the East African frontiers seemed increasingly difficult.

They said there were no landing fields except those controlled by Italy, that Ethiopian tribesmen might regard the airplanes as league military assistance to Ethiopia, and that the League air force might come to get into difficulties with the Italian army or air force.

Should war break out before the League peace plan is submitted, League officials thought an immediate session of the League Council would be called to determine what to do.

Crisp Comment in National News By Associated Press

By The Associated Press

William Randolph Hearst, the publisher, sanctioning Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas for the Republican presidential nomination:

"I am confident Governor Landon of Kansas could be elected on the Republican ticket, in spite of the fact that he has been elected to the office of governor of Kansas, and in spite of Mr. Farley's plans to Tanymize the nation."

President Roosevelt, turning Caesar on the crowd as he gazed down from atop Boulder Dam:

"I am speechless."

Then he exclaimed:

"I came, I saw, I was conquered."

Melvin H. Purvis, former chief of the department of justice in Chicago who directed the search which led to the capture and death of John Dillinger, admitting information was furnished him by Mrs. Anna Sage, the "woman in red," whom the government seeks to deport for operating disorderly houses:

"Certainly the service which she performed for the government, and for that matter for the people of this country, in ridding the country of this menace, should not be belittled."

Mrs. Babe Ruth:

"I haven't any plans for the Babe. The Babe has been the idol of American youth for a long while and I won't have him mixed up in anything that isn't just right."

Raley was shot Friday and died yesterday. Sheriff Earl Evans attributed the shooting to ill feeling between the slain man and Raley. Raley is the sixth victim of Saline County's mine war in the last 22 months.

Thompson was held in the Saline County jail while Sheriff Evans continued his investigation.

Daylight Saving

A clever radio program Sunday gave the amusing side of the confusion which may result from turning the clock back or forward in response to the fashion of daylight saving. Many are relieved that the "summer time" has ended, so they won't have to think about some programs being an hour
this way or that. The average citizen may now look at his clock and know exactly what time it is, even tho he lives in Chicago, where daylight saving was in vogue.

The idea is by no means popular everywhere. Only two states, and a territory, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Hawaii, have daylight saving officially.

No other state uses it, although some cities in other states have daylight saving time.

In Connecticut there is a law against showing other than standard time on clocks publicly displayed. Maine has a similar law. In New Hampshire a town can be fined $500 for adopting any but standard time. Wisconsin has a law making daylight saving time an offence. The state of Washington abandoned daylight saving.

Fruit Juice Abroad

While Americans are seeking new ideas from the old world, it may be well to remember that Europeans are just as interested in the new things they may borrow from this side of the ocean. Just now it is the style of drinking fruit juice. American regeneration has made it possible to enjoy in Europe many dishes to which our own people have become accustomed, and to use many drinks that are well established in American homes.

Fruit juice has become popular all over France. A glass of tomato or orange juice is now frequently part of the menu on French tables. In fact, it is said fruit juice has become as popular as beer in some quarters.

It is fact that the drinks can be served cold from an American refrigerator is responsible for their popularity.
The idea of serving fruit juice got going when an American college graduate opened a bar in the center of Paris. He had a good location, but as long as he sold only the customary liquors, he got little business. There are hundreds of bars in Paris. But he hit upon the idea of serving American fruit juice. The plan registered with the drinking public at once, and the place became a good business venture.
You can't beat American ingenuity,
even in a foreign country.

Echoes of a Trial

Recently plans to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the famous Scopes Evolution trial in Dayton, Tenn., were balked by a general protest of the people of the city, including the Chamber of Commerce. The people are growing tired of having Dayton referred to as the "monkey"
town and Tennessee as the "monkey" state. The publicity gained at the time of the trial has reacted, and now Dayton would like to forget the whole affair.

It is now revealed that the trial was held in Dayton thru the efforts of a group seeking publicity for the town.
It was deliberately planned, so that the Tennessee anti-evolution law could be tested. It was there that the late William J. Bryan and Clarence Darrow met in legal combat over the fate of young John Thomas Scopes, who was arrested for teaching evolution in the high school contrary to the new law.

Dayton got the publicity, which included much notoriety and ridicule.
The Tennessee "monkey law" is still on the books, tho several attempts have been made to repeal it. Many people of the state have become sour on the law and the publicity it has brought. Scopes was fined $100, but his fine was remitted by the Supreme court, because it was more than the $50 minimum provided for a misdemeanor under the state constitution.

He left the teaching profession, feeling that his academic freedom had been violated, and is now a mechanic
with an airplane concern.

Forests Can Be Saved By Being Left Alone

By Bruce Catton
When the Civilian Conservation Corps was sent into the woods with its axes, its picks and shovels, and its educational pamphlets, lovers of the great outdoors sat back comfortably and concluded that America's wilderness areas were at last to be made safe for the bull moose, the red squirrel, and the future generation.

But it develops that this sigh of relief was a little premature.
Few organizations have a more alert interest in our wilderness heritage than the group, speaking in the current issue of Nature Magazine, asserts that our primeval forests are actually endangered by activities of the outfit that was supposed to protect them—the CCC.

This isn't the CCC's fault. The point is that one of the jobs given the CCC has been to build roads through the forests; and the Nature Magazine article protests that no one in Washington seems to realize that if you build enough roads into a wilderness,
and dot it with hotels and camp sites,
it very speedily ceases to be a wilderness.

We seem to be approaching a time in which the average man will have more leisure than he ever had before.
In such a time it will be of the highest importance to have these wilderness areas available—not to automobile parties and hotel guests, but to ven-turers who can plunge in on foot, carrying what they need on their own backs and finding in the depths of pathless forests a tranquility, a spiritual orientation, that can be gained in no other way.

In short, the best thing we can do with our remaining wilderness areas is to leave them alone. We can defeat our own ends by building too many trails and clearing away too much brush. Let Washington call a halt to these activities before it is too late.

Nationalist Irony

Some little time ago the Vienna
police arrested a man for begging.
Finding that he had come from Yugo-Slavia, they deported him to that country.

The Yugo-Slavs, however, decided that he was no citizen of their land,
so they expelled him in the direction of Italy. The Italians wouldn't have him, and chased him out of Italy with fixed bayonets.

He had to spend three mortal days
on a bridge between the two countries, unable to enter either. Then the Italians arrested him and sent him back to Austria.

The Austrians were about to expel him again when he got a chance to tell his story. A judge finally took mercy on him and now he is permitted to stay in Austria.

What a commentary on today's insane nationalism that story is! The incident could not have happened save in a world gone daffy with international fear and suspicion.

Why The Coal Strike?

Someone apparently deceived somebody in connection with this bituminous coal strike.

A few months ago, when Congress was in session, we were told that only by passage of the Guffey coal bill could a nation-wide strike be averted.
The strike was in the wind, we were told, and it was essentially a political strike; that is, it had been prepared chiefly because of the pressure that its threat would exert on Congress.

Well, Congress passed the Guffey
bill, and all hands breathed a collective sigh of relief, thinking the danger averted. And then, just after President Roosevelt had appointed a board to administer the new act, the strike broke anyhow.

A good deal of misinformation seems to have been passed out somewhere.

A Wail From Alcatraz

Once more we are informed that Alcatraz prison, the island hoosegow which Uncle Sam maintains for his toughest prisoners, is a place of brutality and oppression. The information comes this time in a letter from a convict smuggled to the outer world.

Warden James A. Johnson's reply to the charge is worth hearing.

"The cry of brutality is a convict's time-worn means of turning on the heat on a prison," he says. "It is to be expected from Alcatraz prisoners, who, under the very purpose of the prison, are under the strictest discipline of any American penitentiary."

Alcatraz, you might recall, is not filled with ordinary convicts. It is reserved for the ultra-dangerous men—criminals, many of them, so tough that the ordinary prison will hardly hold them.

They aren't men to be handled with kid gloves. Charges of undue

Behind The Scenes In Washington

Old Guard Still Rules G.O.P.; Resurrects 'Back to Normality' . . . Huge Campaign Fund Will Be Sought for 1936 Ballot Battle; Knox to Cut Some Figure; Ghosts
Flit at Committee Sessions
in Washington

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Washington.—The men who run the Republican party are a close-mouthed crew. It is virtually unheard-of for a correspondent to be able to get one of them off to a quiet corner and persuade him to spill party secrets under the mellowing influence of distillation or brew.

Democratic politicians incline to be a bit more chummy.
Just the same, there is news to be had out of the secret sessions of the Republican executive committee here:
The G.O.P. machinery is in the hands of the same staunch crowd, which in type has changed little since the Old Guard steam-rolled Teddy Roosevelt out of Chicago in 1912, say the theory that it were better to lose an election with Taft than to lose grip
on that party machinery.

This means that another conservative "back to normalcy" campaign is much more likely than a candidate and platform tainted by liberalism or compromise with the New Deal.
The party chiefs are obsessed with the idea of raising a walling big campaign fund. Some of them are sure it will be the biggest ever collected.

Tentative plans call for heavy expenditures in individual congressional districts with the aim of recapturing
the House. (The G.O.P. knows it can't possibly win the Senate next year.)

Cut Bait for Jobless
The unemployed, who have been something of a problem, will be told they're the victims of Roosevelt policies which are bound to keep them in the serfdom of work relief or the dole unless Republicans resume command.

Second place on the ticket will not be given to a Democrat, barring a sharp reversal of sentiment.

Most of the big shots in the party seem to be aiming for another "smoke-filled room" nomination. At least, few minds are now made up.

The candidate will have to be one who will represent the dominant forces in the party and yet not confirm the impression that the party is primarily representative of huge corporations and multimillionaires.

It's yet to be decided how much independence and progressivism he should be able to profess. At this writing it doesn't seem that Borah will enter the picture formidably.

The platform will be largely one of

Too Hot to Handle

Chairman Henry P. Fletcher, reporting on committee sessions:
"Yes, we gave the potato act an honorable mention in our discussions."
Girl correspondent for Maine newspaper, excitedly: "Tell us about it!"
Fletcher: "Did you ever drop a
not potato?"
And he did.

protest. Attack strategy as to specific New Deal measures is largely dependent on supreme court decisions and there's still an aching space for the bright boy who can think up a good plan for the farmers.

Knox to Be Heard From One heard plenty about the candidacy of Col. Frank Knox of Chicago, but what one heard oftenest was that the party wasn't very likely to nominate a man who hadn't held public office.

Nevertheless, Knox has what looks like an active, widespread organization and will figure in the convention.

Ghosts in Corridors Various "ghosts" of other years were flitting on the fringes of the G.O.P.
Meeting—Larry Richey, Hoover's Man
Friday; ex-Senators Jim Watson of Indiana; Dave Reed of Pennsylvania—now a national committeeman—and Hiram Bingham of Connecticut, and such once puissant congressmen as John Tillson of Connecticut and Franklin Fort of New Jersey.

Conspicuous traders included Commissioner Charlie Hilles of New York, who wants the candidate picked at the convention and not before, and J.
Henry Roraback of Connecticut, who owns utilities, insurance companies, and banks—the two most powerful Republican bosses in the east.

Negro Vote Important
Then there was Committeeman Perry Howard of Mississippi, colored, long an expert deliverer of southern delegates. Perry presumably was looking for money with which to wean back colored voters who left the party in 1932.

Judging from his complimentary references to "General" Knox, he's also drumming up trade for the Chicago candidate. He had been in twenty-two states recently, mixing his business as national attorney for the colored Elks with Republican politics.

The colored vote is so important in many states that he's likely to be a considerable campaign figure.
"Yes, sir," said Perry. "The boys are anxious to come home if we give them a good candidate. They all know this party is their home."

Family Escapes as Fire Damages House

W. J. Cope and Family Have Exciting Escape from Jerseyville Blaze

Jerseyville, Ill.—Fire which threatened destruction of the W. J. Cope residence on South State street in Jerseyville about one-thirty o'clock
Saturday morning, was extinguished
by the Jerseyville fire department
shortly after its discovery.

Members of the Cope family were awakened shortly after one o'clock and found the house was filled with smoke. The alarm was sent in at once and when the firemen arrived they found the blaze was confined to the chimney and basement. They opened the chimney in the basement and within a short time had the fire
under control.

Had it not been for the timely discovery of the fire by the family, the residence would, no doubt, have been destroyed.

The firemen experienced considerable difficulty in reaching the Cope home as the dirt road leading past

the place has been graded preparatory to graveling.

Groppe Will Filed
Mrs. Grace Groppe was named the sole beneficiary in the Last Will and Testament of her husband, the late William Groppe which was probated
in the Jersey County Probate Court Friday, September 27th. She was also appointed executrix of the estate to serve without bond.

The instrument was prepared October 15, 1935 and was witnessed by E. B.
Shafer and M. B. Hanley.

Purchase Residence
Postmaster and Mrs. B. L. McDow of Jerseyville have purchased the residence property of Mrs. Lillian Livingston of New Douglas which is located on Mulberry and Lafayette streets in Jerseyville. The home was formerly the property of the late Mr. and Mrs.
Fred Scheffer.

Postmaster McDow stated that he plans to remodel the residence and would not occupy it for some time.
The house at present is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

THEME IS "REALITY"

"Reality" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 29.

The Golden Text was, "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning" (James 1:17).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "I know that, whatever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him. That which hath been is now, and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth that which is past (Eccl. 3:14, 15).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures":

gered the home of Mrs. Lena D. Allin, 429 South Church street, during the noon hour Sunday. The flames were confined to one room of the second floor by the fire department, whose members donned gas masks to fight the blaze.

Arriving at the home, the firemen invaded a smoke-clogged room where heat from a flue set the wall on fire. Two lines from a water pump were used, and a larger hose was held in readiness.

The blaze did not break through the roof and was held to the room where it started. The damage has not been estimated, but will not be large.

Victory is sweet, but hardly any sweeter than the farewell kisses bestowed on the departing Tommies by their pretty sweethearts. Presbyterians Hear Dr. John Timothy Stone in Three Sermons Sunday Presbyterian Loyalty Sunday was a great day in the churches of Jacksonville and surrounding territory. Dr. John Timothy Stone, president of Presbyterian Seminary, Chicago was the speaker.

Beginning in Northminster church at the morning service there was a large and worshipful audience that filled the church.

His sermon was challenging and assuring to the believers in Christ and his Kingdom. Many points that the speaker made will be long remembered in Jacksonville. The splendid music at this service was a fine preparation for the discourse by the distinguished preacher.

At the evening worship hour in Northminster Dr. Stone used the story of the Master's finding and transforming Zachaeus in the 18th Chapter of Luke's gospel. He spoke of the rich inheritance left to us by the heroic leaders of our church in the great doctrines of the church.

The majesty glory of the sovereignty of God as related to human affairs and events, and the correlation of the freedom of the human will, great truths that they sent men out under adverse circumstances, which like evils in high and low places, battles not only against flesh and blood, but against principalities, rulers of darkness and spiritual wickedness in high places, all were explained in the address.

The steady influence of these doctrines gives power and poise to our church that is marching steadily forward. Dr. Stone wonderfully illustrated his most inspiring message, drawing upon his rich experience of travel in the old world. He closed his message with a strong, thrilling note of triumph for the church.

The music and ministry of song by the choir under the leadership of Frank Bracewell, was greatly appreciated by the large audience.

Sermon at Westminster
Dr. Stone declared yesterday afternoon in Westminster church that he had spoken to more than four-hundred-fifty colleges and universities during the last twenty-five years, and that there never was in our history a finer group of young men and women in these institutions than today. He declared that whereas formerly nine-tenths of his students in Chicago came from denominational colleges, that today more than one-third come from state universities; and that unless Christian colleges teach Christ, they will not be alive in twenty-five years. Ann Arbor, he said, Wisconsin, and Illinois are all training students in the word of God as good as denominational colleges; and better than some.

A large congregation gathered at the church from all the Presbyterian churches of this district, as well as from the general public of our city. The meeting was presided over by

Cub-Pitchers May Have an Edge Over Cochrane's Boys In World's Series Games

By Paul Mickelson
Associated Press Sports Writer
Chicago, Sept. 30.—(P)—The 21-in-a-row Chicago Cubs, one of the youngest pennant-winning teams in baseball history with an average age of but 26 years, haven't a pitcher who ever won a world series game, but they figure to hold a edge over Mickey Cochrane's moundmen.

Up until September 4 before the Cubs hurled off the great winning streak that won the flag, the Tiger pitchers who then had eased up on their superb rush, stacked up as the better mound staff. But the comparative finishes to the wire have been great contrasts.

The work of Charlie Grimm's pitchers in the 21 game winning streak has been so sensational that his starting hurler was able to go the full route in 18 out of 21 engagements. Over the bridges and Crowder. Both teams are well equipped with pitching reserves and probably will center the relief jobs on Southpaw Roy Henshaw, Cubs, and Rube Lusk, Tigers. The rookie who pitched shutouts in his first two American League games this season.

Comparing them:

Warneke and Auker: Warneke, a cool workman with a lightning fast ball, is the chief reliance of the Cub staff and a hard man to beat. Auker, one of the big surprises of the season with his comeback, delivers a tricky underhand ball that undoubtedly will bother the Cubs as there isn't a pitcher like him in the National League. Both had earned run averages of 3.51 in the season just closed.

Root and Bridges: Tommy may be Cochrane's best bet. When he's right with his great curve, he's invincible. Root, pitching the same ball that made him famous years ago, may be soup for Hank Greenberg's hot run ball, but he's a smart, fast ball pitcher. Root's earned run average for the season is 3.78 to Bridges' 4.66.

Lee and Rowe: Rowe, flashing his 1934 form again, has the edge if he stays "hot." He has everything when right. He throws a low, fast ball and is one of the fastest improving pitchers in baseball, a six foot three giant with a world of speed, the percentage winning champion of the National League with 20 victories, six defeats and an earned run average of 3.60 compared to 19.13 and 3.85 for Rowe.

French and Crowder: Neither may be trusted with a starting assignment but both are fine workmen. French 17 and 10 to Crowder's 16 and 10. French's earned run average was 3.42; Crowder's 4.77.

Interstate Rivalry Marks I.L.A.C. Card

Illinois College to Meet Parsons Here Next Saturday; Other Games Carded

Chicago.—(P)—Interstate rivalry, and the first conference games of the season, will hold the center of the football stage in the Illinois Intercollegiate Conference this week.

Fourteen games have been scheduled by League members for the week end, bringing 18 teams into action. Only Illinois Wesleyan, with an open date, and Eureka, with the season's opener still a week distant, will be idle.

Western State Teachers and Knox will play the first conference game of the season Friday at Galesburg. Saturday, Elmhurst will play at Bradley, Augustana and Carthage will clash at Rockford, and Northern State Teachers will visit State Normal to send the twenty-fourth Little 19 grid season away to a flying start.

Of the remaining games, nine will involve a member of the I.L.A.C., and an out-of-state school. Three Wisconsin schools, and two each from Iowa, Indiana, and Missouri will line up against the Illinois entries.

Augustana, co-defender of the conference championship with Millikin, should have little difficulty in conquering Carthage as the two teams stage Rockford's first collegiate grid contest in five years. Augustana overwhelmed Iowa Wesleyan 34 to 12, last week while Carthage was surrendering a 35 to 0 decision to the powerful Kirkville (Mo.) Teachers.

Knox, possessor of a one-game winning streak, in contrast to the string of 27 consecutive defeats which it snapped. Saturday, will seek to make it two in a row as the "Sons of Old Swah" entertain Western State Teachers.

St. Viator opening at Valparaiso, Ind., Eastern State Teachers entertaining Oakland (Ind.) College, and North Central meeting Aurora Junior College will be starting their seasons.

Last week's results:
Thursday—McKendree 0, Washington University 24; Carthage 0, Kirkville (Mo.) Teachers 35; Iowa Wesleyan 34, Augustana 12.
Saturday—Bradley 9, Iowa 26; Northern State Teachers 27, White-water (Wis.) Teachers 0; Ripon 6, Millikin 0; Principal 0, Knox 18; Adrian 0, Wheaton 7; Illinois Wesleyan 6, University of South Dakota 7; Chicago South Side Junior College 0, State Normal 29; Illinois College 0, Kalamazoo (Mich.) Teachers 13; Arkansas Aggies 7, Southern State Teachers 0; Lawrence 7, Lake Forest 0; Burlington (Ia.) Junior College 0, Monmouth 33; Morton College 6, Elmhurst 25.

Friday—Western State Teachers at Knox; Cape Girardeau (Mo.) Teachers at Southern State Teachers; Millikin at Iowa (Ia.).

Saturday—Elmhurst at Bradley; Augustana vs. Carthage at Rockford; Northern State Teachers at State Normal; Parsons College at Illinois College; McKendree at Rolla (Mo.) Mines; Lake Forest at DePue; Monmouth at Lawrence (Appleton, Wis.); Aurora at North Central; Oakland City (Ind.) College at Eastern State Teachers; Wheaton at Milwaukee Teachers; St. Viator at Valparaiso (Ind.).

Routt Gallops Over Quincy Academy For Second Straight Win by 27 to 0 Score Sunday

Quincy.—Striking with devastating precision in the last two periods, Routt High's Rockets continued on their unbeaten path for the season when they galloped over Quincy College's battling Academy team, 27 to 0. Held to a single touchdown in the first half when they drove for 71 yards in line plays and end runs, the Rockets opened up with some of their more choice plays in the second half to subdue the Quincys.

Blocked once on the one yard line in the second quarter after taking advantage of a short kick, and another time on the Quincy 20 yard line when an alert Academy player recovered a Routt fumble. Routt turned the tables in the second half when they recovered a fumble and turned it into a score, broke Sam Isaacs loose for a 60 yard run to a touchdown, and then sent "Skeets" Lawrence over the goal line with a pass.

Quincy showed plenty of power, in a game devoted to offense. Both defenses played cautiously, taking no chances on a wide open attack and consequently making the short running game gain ground more consistently.

With Lawrence serving as the spearhead for the attack, Routt took the opening kick-off and after a 19 yard run-back, started its touchdown drive on its own 29 yard line. Lawrence, crashing through the Quincy line for successive downs all the way to the goal line, with Lawrence going over from the eight yard line. Buoy contributed the longest gain, a 26 yard twisting sprint through the Quincy secondary. Lawrence also plunged for the added point.

That was the only time the Rockets were able to cross the Acad goal line in the opening half, but they once advanced the ball to the one yard line, and another time carried it to the Quincy 20.

A fumbled punt gave the Rockets the ball on the Quincy 15 yard line at the start of the second half, and they immediately converted the break into a touchdown, Lawrence making a first down on two tries, advancing the ball

All eyes, at least most of them, are turned toward Detroit for the unfolding of the first two games of the World Series—and again, as in the past, the Journal and Courier will operate its play-by-play board.

Reports will be received both by radio and by ticker so that the customers at this popular spot will be sure of getting the news just as fast as it occurs.

Betting, as far as we have been able to learn, is mostly of the verbal variety, with very little actual cash going on the line. The reason is that unless the fan is a rabid, he is saving the coin of the realm for sure cigar money.

And while the Cubs were busy letting down in their final game, a youngster from down in Calhoun county turned them back with three hits. The youngster is Bill McGee, a product of the Cardinal Chain Gang.

We wondered why all the applause for McGee Sunday, and later learned that he was born down here at Barton, and has been with Houston in the Texas league this year. The Cardinals bought him just before the close of the season and gave him his chance against the Cubs Sunday. With Houston this year, McGee won 15 and lost 13.

He's a big husky, and took his debut in the major league with modesty, almost blushing everytime the crowd turned loose its applause.

The Cubs made it a bit easy for him, but there was not much doubt about his ability. He looked like duck soup when he went on the hill, but he kept wheeling them down the alley where the Cubs couldn't hit them effectively.

The return of Abe Feduris to the Illinois College campus has bolstered up one of the weak spots in the line. The Blueboys haven't had time to get a tackle ready for the early game, and didn't feel that they could move Lou Davis away from the center position to strengthen another place.

Feduris, if he rounds into shape quickly enough, may get a work-out in the game with Parsons here to tune him up for the game with Millikin. However, Parsons lost to Western State Teachers of Macomb only 5-3, and Illinois isn't looking for any set-up.

Western, it is remembered with some rancor, was the only team to defeat the Blueboys last year, and Coach Ray Hanson has a bunch of those Leathernecks back again this year.

It is interesting to note the differences in the rules used by the high schools and colleges.

Both codes provide for disqualification of a player who illegally returns to the game, but the intercollegiate code adds a distance penalty of 25 yards while the distance penalty

Abe Feduris Will Join Blueboy Squad Co-Captain Returns To School For Final Year; Offense Wasn't Ready Saturday

Abe Feduris, the 240 pound tackle who was elected co-captain of the Illinois College football team for this year, returned to the campus yesterday, registered, and is all ready to begin classes this morning, lending a joyful note to the preparations for the game with Parsons College, of Fairfield, Iowa, here this Saturday, and considerably enhancing the Blueboy outlook for the game with Millikin the week following.

The Blueboy offense wasn't ready for a team of the caliber of the Western State Teachers of Kalamazoo, Coach Ray Nussipick indicated last night when he put his squad through a long scrimmage, the first to be dealt out to the squad immediately following a game. Linemen weren't getting out of their positions quickly enough to form an offense, and there was some indecision regarding some of the plays.

The week will be spent in polishing up the plays the team already knows, and in speeding up the offense. All of the players returned from the Michigan game in good shape with the possible exception of Kenneth Mann, who suffered a sprained thumb. The injury didn't keep Mann out of the scrimmage drill, however.

Feduris, who has been at his home in Johnston City for some time, said yesterday he was in good condition. He had been working out in anticipation of joining a semi-professional basketball team in Chicago during the winter months, but quickly dropped his plans when it became possible for him to return to college.

The Blueboys had nothing but praise for the Michigan team, declaring that although they were a bit heavier they were much better prepared through a longer practice period, for their opening game. They also bumped into one of the best line backs they have seen for some years, a big burly who refused to be fooled by the tricky Blueboy shift and tricky plays.

Buddy Myer Is Batting Champ

By Dillon Graham
Associated Press Sports Writer
Washington, Sept. 30.—(P)—A little Washington infielder who wasn't good enough to play in baseball's all-star game last July apparently has won the American league batting crown.

And Charles Solomon (Buddy) Myer won it the hard way, banging out four hits in the final game against Philadelphia yesterday to overhaul Lusty Joe Vossnick of Cleveland.

Trailing the Indians' outfielder by several points, the Senator's second baseman figured four hits Sunday would give him an outside chance. He came through like a champion, slapping out three singles and finishing with a double as the clincher.

Vossnick, trying to protect his slender lead, remained out of Cleveland's first game—except to go hitless as a pinch hitter—when word of Myer's spree came. Vossnick jumped back into the battle. One hit in three attempts wasn't quite enough.

So although official figures won't be ready before last winter, the unofficial averages show Myer with a .350 mark against Vossnick's .348.

"I knew I had to get four hits Sunday," Myer said. "I went to bat free and easy, determined to go down swinging. And I got 'em."

Twice Myer was obliged to swing at bad balls, on the hit-and-run signal, but he rapped out singles.

Myer, who was not used by Mickey Cochrane in the all-star game, had a lifetime average of .297 until this season. His best previous mark was .313 with Boston in 1928.

The Mississippi star smokes golf, a new hat, abstains from drinking, his escape from the lead-off position and luck with bringing him his title.

Peterman Hurls Four Hit Go as Local Team Wins from Springfield, 15 to 4

Mark Peterman, Springfield high athletic director, hurled a four hit game Sunday night as the Walker Cafes turned on their heavy seige guns and blasted Chuck Traeger, famous men's pitcher, of Springfield, for 13 hits and a victory by a 15 to 4 score. The victory eased the series between the two teams here, and the final match will be played next Sunday night at the Nichols Park diamond.

In the curtain raiser, the Wrights Lumber Company girls repeated their victory over the Famous Girls' team of a week ago, turning in a 21 to 11 score. Bauer, who held the Famous Girls to four hits a week ago, and gave only seven Sunday night. Walks helped the Wrights team pile up the 21 runs on ten hits, and three Springfield errors.

Abernathy and DiCenso led the Jacksonville attack on Traeger in the nine inning nightcap, smashing home runs. DiCenso collected three hits.

Arkansas Will Furnish All The Pitching For Opening Game of World's Series

By Alan Gould.
(Associated Press Sports Editor)
Detroit, Sept. 30.—(P)—Arkansas will furnish all the sharp-shooting ammunition for the opening of baseball's annual civil war.

It will be Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe, right-handed rifleman from El Dorado against Lonnie Warneke, the pride of the Ozarks, when the Detroit Tigers meet the charge of the sensational Chicago Cubs Wednesday in the first game of the 1935 world series.

After driving his American League champions through a hard two-hour drill under a welcome sun at Navin Field, beaming as he saw them snap out of their late-season sluggishness, Manager Mickey Cochrane ended any lingering uncertainty about his pitching plans.

"Rowe is right and that means he's our No. 1 man," said Cochrane. The fiery pilot of the Tigers was enthusiastic as he watched the tall right hander breeze through a half-hour's workout. The entire Tiger team, as well as Cochrane, realizes that the outcome depends on whether Rowe is "right." The Schoolboy's definite nomination by Cochrane for the opening game was the signal for fresh optimism in the Bengal camp.

"We know Warneke is tough, that he's the man we will have to beat," he conceded Cochrane. "But Rowe will match everything he's got and the rest of our right handed staff should give us the edge—maybe in six games. Those Cubs will see plenty of curve balls. You can bet on that much, no matter how long the series lasts."

"I might change my mind about the rotation, but my intention now is to pitch Rowe, Tommy Bridges and Eiden Auker, in that order," continued the Detroit leader. "All three have the benefit of last year's experience. They've all got what it takes to beat the Cubs, mostly a right handed bunch of hitters."

Cochrane, his Tigers and the advance guard of baseball's camp followers, gathering for what looks like another million-dollar sports show, had Navin Field all to themselves today. Their only rivals were the workmen putting finishing touches on the huge temporary bleachers filling at least half an acre of space off left and center field.

With additional capacity for 19,000 cash customers, the home park of the Tigers can accommodate 46,700 fans. Such is the baseball fever here, surpassing last year's turmoil of excitement when the field could have filled three times over by eager rooters seeking tickets at $5.50 each in the grandstand. The biggest turnout last year at Navin Field was 44,551 for the sixth game.

The Cubs, arriving this evening, got their first peek at the battle-ground tomorrow. Cochrane was agreeable to any plans of Charley Grimm, Chicago manager, so far as final workouts are concerned.

"I know the Cubs are hot, that they will carry the momentum of that great pennant-winning streak into the series," conceded Cochrane, "but the Tigers are a winning ball club, whenever the pressure is on and the opposition is tough. All this season, the team has come through when necessary to gain or protect the league lead."

The echoes of Cochrane's dressing room "pep talk" were reflected in the Tiger showing on the practice field. A seasoned outfit, two-time pennant-winner, the battering Bengals reassured their manager by getting down to business briskly again. Led by big Hank Greenberg, the team's No. 1 powerhouse, they belted the offerings of Roxie Lawson, rookie twirler.

Greenberg smashed one ball through the screen in front of the leftfield bleachers.

"Only two bases on a shot like that!" mourned the big first baseman. Under the ground rules this year the screen must be cleared to produce a home run. But it's some 20 feet nearer the plate and a better target. If the big hitters start teeing off, a new world series record for two-baggers may be hung up.

Detroit Infield is Better Than Bruins

By Dillon Graham
Associated Press Sports Editor
Detroit.—(P)—If there is any single outstanding factor calculated to give the Detroit Tigers an advantage over the Chicago Cubs in the world series starting here Wednesday, it is their iron-man infield.

This quartet—Hank Greenberg, Charley Gehringer, Billy Rogell and Marvin Owen—may provide the balance of power in a series which otherwise brings together two well-matched teams.

The Cubs have a harder hitting outfield. They also may enjoy a pitching edge with Lonnie Warneke in much better form right now than Schoolboy Rowe. They are willing to match the slugging Gabby Hartnett against Manager Mickey Cochrane behind the bat, without misgivings. But the National League champions, man for man, do not possess the infield strength of the Tigers.

Defensively, Detroit's inner quartet, labelled the "Battalion of Death" by Tiger rooters, is superior at every position to the Cub infield of Phil Cavarretta, Billy Herman, Bill Jurgas and Stanley Hack. The Tiger infield has been intact, except for a few scattered days, for two years of championship competition.

Paced by Greenberg, the leading run-producer of both leagues, the Tiger infielders again have averaged more than 100 runs-batted-in per man. Greenberg's slugging has overshadowed the fact he also has developed into one of the best defensive first basemen in the game.

The big Jewish boy, with a mark of .993 for the season, has a remarkable defensive record. He outclasses Cavarretta, sensational though the Cub youngster has been in his first major league season as a replacement for Manager Charley Grimm.

The "key men" of both infields play second base. Herman may not be as flawlessly steady as the graceful Gehringer in the field, but he covers as much ground and he has outlived his Tiger rival by about 15 points on the season's run. They are the "tops" now among major league keystone workers.

Rogell and Owen are steadier and more experienced than their Cub rivals, on the left side of the infield. Rogell is a much harder hitter than Jurgas, but Hack on this season's performance, has a batting advantage over Owen, who has fallen more than 60 points off his 1934 hitting pace.

The Cubs will rely on their brilliant outfield, consisting of Frank Deane, Freddie Lindstrom and Augie Galan, to provide the punch needed to offset the acknowledged power of the Tiger infield, embarrassed by its shortcomings.

The veteran Goose Goslin still packs a wallop, but he is erratic on the defense. The failure of the flashy Jo Jo White to measure up to his 1934 form, especially at bat, forced Cochrane to do some juggling. Gerald Walker will see world series service.

The Tigers have driven in more runs and more homers than the Cubs, but the margin is not conclusive. This may be attributed to the difference in opposition.

As far as power is concerned, the series rivals are evenly matched. It is on the defensive side that the Tigers have a pronounced edge, as a team, but Chicago's better-balanced pitching staff may furnish a rebuttal.

Pro Grid Champs Downed by Packers

Chicago.—(P)—The select group of undefeated teams in the National Professional Football League had dwindled to three today and the list did not include the 1934 champion New York Giants.

The revived Green Bay Packers, who dealt the Chicago Bears a surprise defeat a week ago, arose to the occasion again yesterday by tipping over the Giants, 16 to 7, at Green Bay. At the same time the Boston Red Skins defeated Brooklyn, 7 to 3, in the opening battle for both teams, to take the leadership of the eastern division from the Giants.

The Chicago Cardinals, responsible for Green Bay's setback of the season, again demonstrated their belated to the first flight by battling the powerful Detroit Lions to a 10 to 10 tie at Detroit. The Bears accounted for their first victory in two starts by trouncing Pittsburgh, 23 to 7, at Pittsburgh.

DIZZY PICKS CUBS TO WIN IN SERIES

Says Cards Needed More Pitchers to Win Pennant

St. Louis.—(P)—Dizzy Dean, St. Louis Cardinal pitcher, predicts the Chicago Cubs will win the world series.

"The Cubs are the 'outclassing' club of the season," Dizzy said today, "and I think they will beat the Tigers. I'm pulling for them."

The great right-hander said the Cardinals lost the National League pennant because the team didn't have enough pitchers. He will not attend the series, he said.

Christian Church Homecoming Has Large Attendance

Missionary From China is Speaker; Dr. Pontius Addresses Couples

Homecoming at Central Christian church was successful from the standpoint of audiences and interest. The Bible school was the largest of the year and excellent attendance at the morning service and three hundred sat down to the basket dinner in the church at the noon hour.

Mrs. Marguerite Harmon Bro of Chicago sang a number of Chinese songs to the children at the close of the Bible school service; she brought a fine religious message in the morning service upon the theme, "Re-digging Old Wells." At the dinner tables she brought a very fine message upon the social and religious life of a great city, revealing many incidents of human interest and of practical religious value. Mrs. Bro was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Pontius.

The Young People's societies were well attended and plans were made for an extended program in this organized work for the autumn and winter. At 7:30 Dr. Pontius brought his annual message to the couples he has married during the past twenty years. There were couples present from three states and from various portions of Illinois, especially central Illinois. The sermon subject was "Living With Ourselves." Following are a few sentences from the message:

"Religion is more than the life of God in the soul of man; religion is what one does and thinks and desires in his solitariness. The person who has never been alone, has no real religion. Solitude drives us to find ourselves, finding ourselves we find others, finding others and self we find God."

"Modern man does not know how to be alone; meditation is a lost art. Mysticism is not a luxury, it is a necessity. The average person today is afraid to go home and think, afraid to be alone with his own thoughts. One thing is more precious than communing with friends and that is communion with self; one thing more important than communion with self and that is communion with God."

As each couple entered the church they were given badges upon which were these words: Married Couples. Welcome. Annual Homecoming, Central Christian church, Sept. 29th, 1935.

JACKSONVILLE YOUNG COUPLE WED SEPT. 18

Richard Johnson of this city, and Miss Edna Henry of Woodson, were united in marriage on Wednesday, Sept. 18th, 1935. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. R. Brown at his home in Pittsfield, Ill.

The young couple were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson of Pittsfield, and by the groom's mother, Mrs. Daisy Brownlow of Jacksonville. The bride is the daughter of Howard Henry of Woodson. The groom is employed by the Weyand Shoe company and the newlyweds will make their home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Doyel left Friday evening for a visit in St. Louis and to attend the ball game Saturday afternoon.

M. M. Baird returned Monday night after a business trip to St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Bushnell purchased a new car recently.

Mrs. O. L. Doyel and Mrs. James Doyel were shopping in Jacksonville Thursday.

Mrs. Pearl Johnson of Patterson was a recent visitor with Mr. and Mrs. M. Baird.

THE BLUE DOOR

by Rachel Mack © 1935 NGA Service, Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
RUTH WOODSON, pretty, penniless girl of 19 in search of work, seeks shelter from a cold rain in an old stone house with a blue door in the little town of Worthington. The owner, an old housekeeper, BERTHA GIBBS, also known as PENNY, mistakes her for ELAINE CHALMERS, the daughter of a wealthy family who has been hiding in the old house after escaping from an insane asylum where she has been unjustly held. Ruth persuades him to prove his sanity legally.

As Ruth is leaving the house for good, Elaine arrives and discovers that Ruth has used her name. She talks cruelly and Ruth leaves. She is picked up while hitchhiking and given a job as maid in Cleveland.

John, meanwhile, is hurrying home to see Ruth.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XXIX
ELAINE, hatless, her hands in the pockets of her sports coat, went through the althaea hedge into the McNeill estate.

She rang the bell, and presently was admitted by Susie.

Elaine said, "Do you remember me, Susie? I used to visit next door to my grandfather's house."

Susie beamed with interest. "Yes'm, I shore does, Miss Elaine! I've been waitin' to see you ever since you been ovah there. Me an' Ebbe, we been watchin' for a glimpse of you for a week."
